ALLIED FLEET POUNDS FORTS LARGE BODIES OF TROOPS LAND

Roumania Mobilizing to Prevent Becoming Second Belgium, and Early Entrance of Balkans in Fray Seems Assured—Russ Fall Back in North—Russ Gaining in Galicia.

By Associated Press.

London, September 14.—Landings of additional large bodies of British and French troops on the Gallipoli peninsula are reported from Mitylene today.

It is reported also that the Turks are firing villages on the Asiatic shore of the Dardanelles, and it is suggested that they are preparing to abandon the straits.

Allies claim that Turkish shore batteries on the Asiatic side of the straits have been almost reduced to silence.

A partial mobilization of Roumanian troops has been ordered, to meet the concentration of Austrian forces in Transylvania.

It is understood in Sofia that Germany has demanded permission for the passage of Austro-German troops through Roumanian territory, and the delivery by Roumania of various supplies, estimated in value at $40,000,000.

Greece, Roumania and Serbia are reported to be considering joint action, in case of an Austro-German attack on Roumania.

Discussion of changes in the Russian cabinet has been revived, with the return of Premier Goremykin from the headquarters of Emperor Nicholas.

The broad program of the new liberal majority in the Duma, for reform legislation, is considered unlikely by the government.

Field Marshal von Hindenburg's offensive near Dvinsk, where the railroad leading from Vilna to Petrograd has been reached, again menaces the railway connections with the Russian capital.

In eastern Galicia, the Russians are reported to have penetrated the Austro-German trenches.

To the north, the Russians are withdrawing steadily from the dangerous Niemen salient.

NEW REVOLUTION IN PORTUGAL

By Associated Press.

Paris, September 14.—A new insurrectionary movement has broken out, not only in Lisbon, but in the principal provincial cities of Portugal, says a dispatch from Madrid.

AIR RAIDS FREQUENT

By Associated Press.

London, September 14.—Another German air raid was made over the east coast of England last night. The Star says there were four victims.

The Star adds that the total casualties from airship raids during the last seven days amounts to 166.

"During this period there have been five air raids on England, the Star says. "The first raid of the series took place on Tuesday night, resulting in 56 casualties.

"The second, in the eastern counties, occurred on the following night, when there were 106 victims. The third and fourth were both futile. Yesterday's attack took four victims."

LOSS NOW 321,383

By Associated Press.

London, September 14.—Official announcement was made today in the House of Commons that the total of British war casualties, up to August 21, was 321,383, officers and men killed, wounded or missing.

It may be assumed that the heaviest proportion of losses was at the Dardanelles.

The losses from June up to August 21, are shown to have been 123,914, a daily average of about 1,500.

THE WEATHER

(By Associated Press)

Washington, September 14.—Weather predictions issued by the weather bureau today for the Ohio valley region, are as follows:

Fair and warm Wednesday and Thursday, followed by showers on the latter date or Friday, and generally fair and cool weather thereafter until the close of the week.

NEXT MEETING ON SATURDAY

By Associated Press.

Washington, September 14.—Secretary Lansing announced today that the Pan-American conference on the Mexican situation, which was to have convened here tomorrow, will not be held until Saturday, and that it will be in New York City.

The change in plan, he said, was due to illness of one of the conferees.

PHILBRICK GETS A NICE JUICY PLUM

By Associated Press.

Columbus, September 14.—C. C. Philbrick, Democrat, Columbus publisher, was appointed member of the State Board of Administration today by Governor Willis, to succeed Starr Cadwallader, Democrat, of Cleveland, who tendered his resignation on demand of the governor.

Mr. Philbrick is editor and publisher of a Democratic Weekly newspaper of Columbus. He was affiliated with the so-called "True Democracy League," which opposed the re-election of Governor Cox.

Mr. Cadwallader's term of office did not expire until May, 1917. Governor Willis stated he had requested the resignation.

Considerable friction had developed between the chief executive and the Board of Administration recently, over refusal of the board to accept resignations of heads of state departments, whom the governor wished ousted.

Governor Willis will have two appointees of the four members of the board when Mr. Philbrick takes office.

U-BOAT IS SUNK

By Associated Press.

Paris, September 14.—A German submarine has been torpedoed and sunk by a French torpedo boat patrol between Mitylene and Tenedos, says a dispatch from Athens.

WOMAN KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE

By Associated Press.

Cleveland, September 14.—Mrs. Annie Jensik, aged 45, was instantly killed by an automobile, which jumped the curb of a street here today.

Mrs. Jensik was taking her ten-year-old son to school, and was leading him by the hand. When she saw the automobile plunging toward them she threw the child to safety.

NONE HURT ON LINER

By Associated Press.

New York, September 14.—No lives were lost and no one was injured during the fire on the steamer Sant' Anna, bound from New York for Italian ports, according to a wireless message received by the Fabre Line agents here today.

Some officials of the line believe the fire was caused by a fire bomb timed to explode when the vessel was in mid-ocean.

ASKED TO DISAVOW SINKING

By Associated Press.

Washington, September 14.—The American government is not yet willing to discuss with Germany the question of arbitration, in connection with the sinking of the Arabic.

It was stated today by a high official "that the question of arbitration is not in issue."

It was explained that what the American government first wants, is a disavowal of the attack on the Arabic.

Afterward, it was indicated, the American government may be willing to arbitrate the question of indemnity.

Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, has communicated the view of the American government to Berlin, and it is expected that he will receive a reply within the next week or ten days.

FIND DEAD MEXICANS

By Associated Press.

Brownsville, Texas, September 14.—The bodies of three dead Mexicans were found today at various points in this section. Two bodies were found 25 miles from the scene of yesterday's fighting.

The Mexicans had been shot. There was no indication as to whether they had been victims of private vengeance.

Another troop of cavalry was sent today into the section where the soldiers were ambushed yesterday.

A Mexican was arrested there on suspicion, making a total of six prisoners held in connection with this fight.

MAY GET BILLION ON NOTES

By Associated Press.

New York, September 14.—The report that the Anglo-French financial commission contemplated borrowing a billion dollars here without collateral of any sort, and solely on government notes of Great Britain and France, overshadowed all other topics in the financial section today.

Heretofore, the opinion has prevailed that Great Britain and France would secure the proposed mammoth loan by American securities.

Whether a strict interpretation of American neutrality would permit the issuance of a straight commercial loan on bonds of two of the allied warring nations, was a topic of considerable conjecture.

The belief prevailed that the Washington government would not interfere.

In case the commission should fail in its plan, it is said, wholesale curtailment of American exports would follow. Wheat, it was said, could be bought in Canada, Argentina, Australia, India and Russia, should the Dardanelles be forced by next March.

Cotton already held in Great Britain, could be made to last until Egypt could produce it. Meats would be bought from Argentina, and manufactured goods from the remaining neutral nations of Europe.

DUMBA ASKS TO GO BACK

By Associated Press.

Lenox, Mass., September 14.—The Austro-Hungarian ambassador, Dr. Dumba, announced today that he had requested his foreign office to recall him on leave of absence in order that he might make a personal report on the situation in the United States, which resulted in a request by the United States government for his recall.

He said he probably would not make public the statement of his position, which he had intended to give to the American press.

He would have something to say, however, through the Austrian press, when he reached Vienna.

Copenhagen, September 14.—According to press dispatches, Dr. Dumba will sail from New York for Copenhagen on September 22.

AMERICAN IS RELEASED

MANY CHANGES ARE MADE IN M. E. CHURCH APPOINTMENTS

Great Disappointment Over the Transfer of Rev. F. E. Ross to Ironton, One of the First Changes Decided Upon by the Bishop—Other Changes in Fayette—Entire List of Appointments as Announced.

It is with a sense of keen disappointment that the congregation of Grace M. E. church and citizens in general learn of the appointment of Rev. F. E. Ross to the Ironton pastorate, although the appointment comes in the shape of a promotion and substantial increase in salary.

It was confidently believed that Rev. Ross would be returned to Grace church for another year at least, and when it became known that in all probability he would be transferred to the Ironton church, a committee hurried to Columbus but Bishop Anderson was firm. It was one of the very first changes to be made and around it hinged virtually all of the other appointments. It was a Bishop's appointment, and had been made without even consulting the district superintendent, as were a number of the leading appointments.

During his pastorate here Rev. Ross has added several hundred new members to the church roll and his relations generally, have been of the most pleasant with the church, so that it is with sincere regret that the congregation learns of the change and Rev. Ross and his pleasant family are to move to other fields of work.

It is his intention to deliver his final sermon Sunday night, after delivering his first sermon in the Ironton church Sunday morning. He will not be able to appear to teach the big class of men at Grace church—an organization which has become very dear to the pastor and which was always most highly pleased with the splendid lesson discussions and advanced ideas conveyed by the pastor in his lesson lectures.

Rev. Ross and family will move to Ironton sometime the latter part of next week.

Mr. J. B. Stone, the new pastor, comes highly recommended, and is not unknown in this city. He is a man of pleasing personality and wideawake to civic advancement in connection with religious advancement.

It is expected that he will deliver his first sermon here Sunday morning.

Other changes made in this county were: Staunton, J. H. Sudlow takes the place of Rev. Shaffer; A. S. Davidson the place of Rev. Born on West Holland charges.

Ohio Second in Automobiles

The Secretary of State announces that this year the number of licensed automobiles in Ohio will exceed one hundred and sixty-eight thousand.

That means that Ohio automobile owners, in connection with automobile dealers, motorcycle owners and licensed chauffeurs will turn into the state treasury for the use of the highway department something over one million dollars.

The one million or more dollars which the owners of motor-driven vehicles pay in excess of the cost of maintaining the automobile department will be, presumptively at least, judiciously expended on the roads of the state and that should go a long way toward bringing about better road conditions.

The announcement means too, that Ohio has passed both California and Illinois in the number of automobiles and that the people of Ohio are second only to one state in the union—New York—in the possession of "machines."

The figures speak volumes for the prosperity of Ohio people. They tell a tale of life and up to dateness in the Buckeye state which is not exceeded by any state in the union. Even though the totals of the Empire State exceed our own it must be borne in mind that the population of New York is so much greater than Ohio that the difference in total figures, as to the ownership of motor-driven vehicles, is not proportionate to the difference in population.

While the figures and estimates of the secretary of state prove conclusively that the automobile has come to stay, it again reminds us that our roads have gone and that under the present plan of construction they cannot be rebuilt as rapidly as they give way. The necessity for a change in plan of construction and maintenance is evident to all who give the subject any consideration.

Local responsibility for road conditions and local control of construction and maintenance would be better by far than state control if it was not for the fact that so many counties of the state are financially unable to bear the burden.

It is probable that before long our law makers may be able to devise a method by which the state can look after the road conditions, in less prosperous counties, leaving the financially responsible counties free to build and maintain their own roads. If it was possible—and it should be—to supplement the present plan, it is certain that better results would follow.

With the tremendous number of automobiles in use and that number increasing rapidly, the road problem becomes more serious than ever before.

Poetry For Today

A LITTLE BIT MORE SUMMER.

A little bit more summer—Oh, yes a little more! That golden spell of beauty ere the memory be o'er!

A little bit more summer

Just to help us keep the song When the wind begins to whistle And the winter nights are long!

A little bit more summer — though the sun may sting and burn!

A little bit more summer ere the leaves to crimson turn!

A little bit more summer

In this life that knows so well The stormbeat and the shadow And the things that haunt to tell!

A little bit more summer—just a day or two of grace.

With that sweetness of the violet in the sunshine of her face!

A little bit more summer.

Ere she turns through yonder door.

With her dreams to be remembered

While she smiles on us no more!

A little bit more summer—we can stand another glance

From her eyes of burning beauty as we join her in the dance!

A little bit more summer

Just to kiss and light the stream Where our hearts will hold her ever

In the sunshine of a dream!

"Things have changed since I was a lad," sighed the sage. "The children of today never hear any fairy tales." "No," agreed the fool. "But the married women are still hearing them."

Wuff!

"Were you ever disappointed in love?" asked Miss Gush.

"I certainly was," replied Mr. Gabb.

"Did the girl flirt you?" asked Miss Gush.

"No," replied Mr. Gabb. "I married her."

Luke McLuke Says

The bride often turns out to be the best man at the wedding, but the groom doesn't find it out until later on. The old fashioned bashful young man who would call on a girl for seven months and fidget around trying to work up enough courage to hold her hand now has a son who meets a girl at 8:30 p. m. and is engaged to her and has her on his lap at 9 p. m.

The world may renege on other things, but you can bet that you will get your full share of criticism.

The silks sported by an affinity may dazzle a man when he is flush and out joy riding, but his wife's old apron sure looks good when he is broke and nursing a big head.

Men like to talk about the women swapping gossip. But the truth of the matter is that every wife pities a lot of other married women because of things her husband has blabbed about to other women's husbands.

Cheer up! Maybe you are not as badly off as you imagine. Many a wealthy man would give a whole lot to be able to carry your appetite into a dining room.

He may grudge her other things, but a man is usually willing to let his wife have all the religion in the family.

Maybe if the 1915 June bride would take a good look at some of the 1900 models she wouldn't feel quite so sure that she isn't going to get fat and sloppy looking like her mother.

Before he gets her he likes to bury his face in her fragrant hair. After he gets her he cusses a blue streak every time he discovers one of her hairs in the comb.

BRYAN WOULD GO TO EUROPE TO STOP WAR

Commoner May Attempt to Bring About Peace.

Philadelphia, Sept. 14.—William J. Bryan has signified his willingness to go to Europe and to attempt to bring about peace.

Whether or not he will go will be decided at a conference between the publishers of foreign language newspapers and himself in Washington next Friday.

The announcement of Mr. Bryan's willingness was contained in a letter received by the editor of an Italian newspaper here from Dr. William Forgo of Brooklyn, who publishes the Forgo Guides and heads the movement to have Mr. Bryan try to stop the war. The announcement was accompanied by an invitation to attend the conference Colonel Bryan will defray his own expenses.

"After the talk I had with Mr. Bryan," writes Dr. Forgo, "I am under the impression that, provided it develops at this meeting with the editors that his going abroad is advisable, he himself will for the love of the cause not only sacrifice his time, but will also pay his own expenses."

This was the answer to a number of the conferees who proposed that a fund be raised from which to pay Mr. Bryan a salary and his expenses.

HELD FINE WAR RECORD

Eaton, O., Sept. 14.—Andrew L. Harris, former governor of Ohio, who died at his home here yesterday, had been in poor health for a number of months and only a few weeks ago his condition was such that his death was feared at any moment. The ex-governor served with distinction through the civil war, was breveted brigadier general at its close, and returned home to acquire popularity and assume a prominent part in the councils of the Republican party. He was born in Butler county, on a farm, Nov. 17, 1835, so had he lived two months longer would have been eighty years of age. He graduated from Miami university in 1860, and received his LL. D. degree from Oberlin.

Governor Harris was admitted to the bar in 1865, was probate judge of Preble county from 1875 to 1882; member of the state senate in 1865 to 1867 and of the house of representatives from 1885 to 1889; became lieutenant governor of Ohio 1892-96, and was again elected to that position in 1905, when John Pattison was elected governor. On Governor Pattison's death he became acting governor, serving from 1906 to 1909, and being defeated for election as governor by Judson Harmon. He was made a member of the United States industrial commission in 1898 by President McKinley, and served on that commission until 1902. Heart disease was the immediate cause of his death.

BIGGEST SILO IN THE STATE

What is said to be one of the largest silos in existence has just been completed by J. E. Andrews on the Humphrey Jones farm near Waterloo, and within a few days the work of filling the enormous barrel will be under way, and several good sized fields of corn will be cut up and placed in the new silo.

The silo in question is 106 feet in height and has a water tank at the top, the tank being 24 by 24 by 4 feet which gives the silo a total height of 110 feet.

The silo is of concrete, scientifically constructed and reinforced so that it will last a lifetime. It required 1350 sacks of cement and 190 cubic yards of gravel and sand to construct the big barrel.

SAD SERVICE AT RESIDENCE

A simple and touching service over all that was mortal of Mrs. Samuel Evans was held at the residence Monday afternoon, by Rev. William Boynton Gage, the Evans' pastor in this city, and Rev. Shields, of the Presbyterian church of Hillsboro, their former pastor.

The home was filled with friends, who sympathized with genuine sorrow with the bereaved family. The members of Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins' Sunday school class, of which Mrs. Evans had been an appreciated member, attended in a body.

A wealth of beautiful flowers surrounded the quiet sleeper. Among them was a beautiful double casket spray of pink and white roses, chosen by the little six year old daughter Marjorie, for her mother; a wreath of carnations from Mrs. Hopkins' class; a basket of lilies and carnations from the Tuesday Kensington Club; wreath of roses from Mr. J. W. Evans and family; spray of gladioli, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Perin; pink gladioli, Mrs. Clarence Nickerson, Mrs. Ernest Shumaker; casket blanketed from both families; large spray of roses, the Willis Lumber Co.

Relatives here to attend the funeral were:

Mr. and Mrs. John Horst, aunt and uncle of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. J. Minor Williams and daughter of Mt. Sterling, brother of Mrs. Evans; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Heistand and son of Hillsboro; Mrs. J. G. Perin of Hillsboro; mother and father of Mrs. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. John Heistand of Hillsboro; Mrs. Amos Evans, mother of Mr. Evans, Hillsboro.

Tuesday morning the family accompanied by undertaker McCoy, made the sad trip by auto to Hillsboro, where services were held in the Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon, and interment made in the Hillsboro cemetery.

IS RECOVERING QUITE RAPIDLY

Fred McManus, the Ohio State Telephone lineman who was carried to the ground from a distance of 25 feet in the air when a telephone pole snapped while he was at work out on the Chillicothe pike, Monday morning, is improving rapidly, and expects to return to his work within a few days.

He is still in the Fayette Hospital.

TAKING LOOK AT LIGHT LOCATIONS

Mayor Coffey, Service Director Gerstner and G. N. Clapp, have been inspecting the location of the various lights about the city, the past day or two, and within a short time the work of installing the new lights will be taken up by a competent engineer.

It will be necessary to remove a narrow strip of the paving along each side of the streets to carry the ornamental standards, as the cables must go under ground.

Owing to the presence of trees and the fact that bracket suspension of lights is not regarded as satisfactory as center suspension, a great many of the lights will be suspended in the center of the streets by means of cables, as at present.

What to Wear this Fall

AMERICA'S pre-eminent Fashion Artists present to you their most beautiful designs and most authoritative styles in the new Wooltex Suits and Coats.

As The Store That Sells Wooltex in this city, it is our pleasure to bring these new fashions direct to you. They are charming; they are beautiful; they are refined; they are becoming; they are correct.

Such a collection of authoritative styles in tailored suits and coats is made possible only by the concentrated efforts of artists who, as individuals, represent the best thought of the fashion centers of the world.

The best artistic skill of Paris, London, Vienna, New York and Cleveland is represented in these designs, all of which have received the approval of Madame Savarie, director of the Wooltex Fashion Bureau in Paris.

Here are the correct style features to look for when you choose your tailored suit or coat for fall and winter.

Natural
Figure
Lines

To be correctly dressed, your tailored suit must show the lines of the natural figure—not tight-fitting, but with graceful curves.

Stylish Jacket
Features

Most suit jackets are hip length, though slightly longer ones are also in style. Fur and velvet on collar, cuffs and lower edge is especially modish. The collars are wide, to be worn close about the neck or flat, with wide revers to correspond.

Skirts Have Plaits

Skirts are moderately full—two to two-and-one-half yards. The fullness is laid in soft rolling or closely pressed plaits.

Coats With Graceful
In-curve

Coats have a graceful in-curve at the back, with full flaring skirts. Many handsome new models are big and loose, some being loosely belted to give the modish flaring outline effect.

WOOLTEX Tailored Suits and Coats embody all these authoritative style features. And to their stylish beauty are added the well known superiorities of Wooltex materials and Wooltex tailoring.

Give yourself the pleasure of seeing these new fall styles now. Try them on, if you wish. See how becoming and graceful the new modes are. Choose your suit or coat now. Have the pleasure of being stylishly and handsomely dressed throughout the full season.

Suits at $25 to $65
Coats at $16.50 to $45

COMING AGAIN.

A Well Remembered Entertainer.

Probably no local talent entertainments have met with greater success nor is more favorably remembered than the "Singin' Skule Begiment" twice, and "Tom Thumb Wedding," which came under the management of Mr. J. Bassett Willard who certainly has many friends and admirers in Washington C. H.

The announcement of the production of his new Southern skit—"Down in Alabam," will no doubt result in pleasant anticipations by both the local singers and actors, who always derive much pleasure through the rehearsals as conducted by Mr. Willard or his representatives, and the public may, as usual, look forward to a rich laughing musical and dramatic treat. The Loyal Daughters of the Christian church have arranged a booking for this successful musical comedy and will present it at the opera house, Friday evening, October 22nd.

An additional pleasing feature of the engagement, will be the presence of Mr. Willard to personally supervise the staging. He will bring Mr. Herschel Williams, one of his most clever assistants, and both will play leading comedy parts. From 75 to 100 local people will take part. adv.

The Voracious Cormorant.

How a cormorant dives for sea trout and gets them is told by a writer: "I had the cormorant under observation only for the space of four or five minutes, and during that short period it had captured four sea trout, all of considerable size. After being under water for a few seconds the bird would reappear with a sea trout wriggling in its bill. But in spite of the victim's desperate efforts to escape it was deftly swallowed, and after a few gulps the cormorant would resume its fishing operations. One of the sea trout gave it considerable trouble, however, for the fish struggled violently for some moments, but was deftly placed so that its head pointed down its captor's throat, and thus its own struggles assisted the bird to swallow it."

Fall Opening

The cycle of season and style swings round once more, ushering in those days so characteristic of robust autumn. The soft languorous summer days soon will be gone and summer costumes with their airy lightness are strangely out of place in the setting of the strong ruddy colors with which nature will paint Old Mother Earth. Eagerly we seek costumes in harmony with the coming season and with the urging of our own sense of the fitness of things.

This was the quest upon which the buyers of this store set out. The markets of the country were scanned and their offerings carefully considered—and always we bore in mind that our purchases must bear three attributes—quality, the best—style not only correct but bearing those characteristics that make for permanency in style—and lastly that the price be such as could only be found by careful, continuous and discriminating search.

Today, as a result of this expert shopping, the store is a veritable show place of the new Fashions for Fall—a monument to the artistic conception of many designers and to the skilled handiwork of thousands of nimble fingered workers in many lands.

You will want to be posted on the styles that the fashion centers of the world have pronounced correct. You will want to see them, to admire, to criticise—perhaps to buy. We shall be very glad to show you, to explain to you and to assist you in any manner that we may to the end that your Fall wardrobe may be correct in every detail.

MORE CLASHES ON THE BORDER

Seven Americans and Fifteen Mexicans Lose Their Lives.

BATTLES RAGED AT TWO POINTS

Trouble Starts In Star County, Texas, When Mexican Soldiers Kill Three Americans Guarding a Crossing. Bandits In Hidalgo County Kill Two Americans and Engage Force of Texas Rangers.

Galveston, Tex., Sept. 14.—Serious clashes have occurred on the border between Mexican soldiers and bandits on the one side and American soldiers, citizens and rangers on the other. As a result two American soldiers, two American citizens, three Texas rangers and fifteen Mexicans are dead. Throughout Hidalgo and Star counties soldiers and citizens are resting on their arms waiting for some alarm, and rangers are scouring the country.

The trouble started when a large number of Mexican soldiers, supposedly from Matamoros, attacked three American on the other side of the river, near Los Indios. The firing of the Mexicans did not cease until the three Americans guarding the crossing fell under the attack. Private Kraft was shot through the head and Private Forney was shot through the back. Kraft died instantly and Forney lived but a few minutes. Sergeant Welsh, commanding the squad, was seriously wounded, and escaped only by dragging himself to the brush. He says that a wild cheer went up from the Mexican soldiers on the other side when it was seen that all defenders of the border at that point had fallen.

All of these troops were of the Twelfth cavalry. Some 100 shots were fired from the Mexican side in a short time. The shooting was heard farther down the river, but when reinforcements reached the scene all Mexicans had disappeared. Later General Nafferete declared that the enemies of Carranza did the shooting, but it is believed that none but Carranza soldiers were in the vicinity.

In the fighting in Hidalgo county two American citizens were killed by bandits. This fighting took place far from the river and more than fifty bandits were engaged, according to reports. One of the Americans was George Johnson, a ranch employe, and the other was a Mexican who had been Americanized. Ten miles south of this ranch rangers located a gang of bandits. A fight at once ensued. Three rangers were killed and five bandits bit the dust. The reports were brought to the ranch by rangers who took part in the fighting.

Demands were made upon General Nafferete for the surrender of two landits known to be with him at Matamoros. These requests have gone unheeded, the commander declaring that he has not the proof implicating these men.

Border stations are being recruited and it is said that the troops have instructions to kill any Mexican who fires across the border. In the interior Mexicans are being hunted like Indians and citizens are arming themselves for the uprising they expect to come this week. Women and children are being moved to points far from the border and stores are being guarded in all sections.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF WAR

Germany's note bearing on the sinking of the White Star liner Arabic, was a feature of the week ending Sept. 12. The Berlin government disclaimed responsibility for the loss of the two Americans on board and declared it could not acknowledge the obligation to pay indemnity, though willing to submit the latter point to arbitration. The note says the commander of the German submarine torpedoed the Arabic when the latter changed its course. High officials expressed disappointment at the note.

A sensational incident of the week was the demand made by the American government at Vienna for the recall of the Austro-Hungarian ambassador, Dr. Constantine Theodore Dumba. In his note to the Austrian government, Secretary of State Lansing charged Dr. Dumba with conspiracy to disrupt American ammunition plants. Others are involved in the case, including Consul General Nuber at New York, Captain Von Papen, military attache of the German embassy, and the editor of a Hungarian paper in New York. Dumba's letter to Vienna, on which the charges are based, was intercepted at London, where F. J. Archibald, an American correspondent, to whom the note had been entrusted, was detained by the British government.

With the czar in supreme command, the Russian forces the past week have put forth a stronger offensive. On the northern and central fronts the German advance has been stubbornly contested, while on the southern front the Austrian army has suffered several setbacks. Along the Sereth river south of Tarnopol, in eastern Galicia, the Austrians have withdrawn to the heights east of the Stripa river. Elsewhere the Russians and Austro-Germans are contending for the mastery of railway lines, the possession of which will make the victors more secure when the time comes to go into winter quarters.

On the western front artillery engagements, with occasional infantry attacks, featured the week. The Germans claim to have made gains in the Argonne and in Artois, where French trenches were taken after desperate assaults. The Italians, like their western allies, are heavily bombarding their opponents' line with artillery, doubtless in an effort to find a weak spot to attack.

Fighting continues at the Dardanelles without any appreciable gains for either side.

Zeppelin airships twice raided England, scores being killed and injured by bombs. The raiders reached the heart of London, where considerable damage was done.

A London dispatch dated Sept. 13 reports that the Austro-German armies on the eastern front, still striving for definite results, are making progress everywhere except along the Galician front, where the Russians report further progress.

THE CIRCUS ZOO

Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Wild Animals Come From Hamburg.

All of the animal acts with the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace circus are imported to this country from the famous Hagenbeck animal farm at Hamburg, Germany. There are many new animal faces with the big show this year which comes to Washington C. H., Monday, September 20 for performances at 2 and 8 p. m., and a parade at 10 o'clock in the morning.

The baboon is probably the closest approach to the human race. Dr. Darwin believes that these little animals are really the missing links and his research work which took place in the Hagenbeck winter quarters in Germany covered a period of twenty years.

There are two troupes of baboon actors with the Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus this season, one being handled by Mons. De Marlin and the other by Mons De Foe. These little hairy fugitives have been taught to ride bicycles, unicycles, etc. They are dressed up as human beings and eat at the dining tent with their trainers, using the knife and fork better than a good many children. They even surpass human beings in some cases, for they wash their teeth after each meal.

One of the monks has his private automobile. He rides to the stage where he performs, looks at his watch and then goes through his performance, which consists of dancing with several members of the opposite sex, playing on a musical saxophone, trick bicycle work and a little acrobatic exercise. The monkey does not like the latter and he can only be made to do enough to keep in trim. The twenty-six educated monkeys with the circus put on a regular circus of their own and there are few feats performed by their kin folk which they cannot duplicate. Before the monkeys came to America from Germany they performed before Kaiser Wilhelm and his family in the Royal Palace at Berlin.

RUSSIANS ARE FORCED BACK TO LAKE DISTRICT

Hindenburg's Army Reaches the Rovno-Petrograd Railway.

MOVING ON VILNA AND DVINSK

Czar's Men With Railway Partly In Hands of the Germans. Will Be Compelled to Make Further Retirement—Great Artillery Battle Still Rages in the West — Day's Operations on Other Fronts.

London, Sept. 14.—Berlin reports a successful rush on the part of the Germans on the eastern front.

Von Hindenburg's army through a battering offensive has at last set foot on the Rovno-Petrograd railway, between Vilna and Dvinsk. The whole Austro-German forces have been striving to gain this railway since the fall of the Polish fortresses. The offensive was carried on from three directions upon Dvinsk and the railway on either side of the town, while farther south the invaders advanced toward Vilna. The Russians were forced back to the lake district, which the railway penetrates, and are now making a stand there.

Simultaneously, the Germans pushed their way eastward toward Slonim and Pinsk, both of which are on roads which join the main railway line, while the Austrians, with whom there are many German units, are fighting hard to reach Rovno, the southern terminus of the line.

With this railway partly in the hands of the Germans, it is probable that the Russians will be compelled to make a further retirement, although their offensive in Galicia, which continues, might save them; by compelling the Germans to send reinforcements to this region. There is now no doubt of Russian success in this district, as, following the Austrian admission of their retirement, the Germans announce that after repulsing Russian attacks they occupied "a favorable position situated some kilometers west of our former position."

The operations in the west are marked by the continuance of the great artillery battle from Belgium to the Argonne. A duel between guns of all calibers along the entire front now has been going on for nearly three weeks, and during the week-end has been particularly violent around Arras, in the Argonne and Champagne. At several points the German infantry, after a heavy bombardment at tempted to storm the advanced trenches of the allies, but the French reports say that these attacks all failed. Fighting of a somewhat similar character is proceeding along the Austrian front.

Child Discipline.

It is bitter medicine, but the one thing needed most in the human soul is discipline.

It is well to have force, genius, vigor, enthusiasm, love, power, but you may have them and be a criminal, a maniac or a cad. You become great only when to these you add self control.

The latest movement in education is toward developing the initiative of the child. This can hardly be carried too far. And the old, stupid method of thwarting, denying and browbeating little ones just for the sake of discipline cannot be too roundly condemned.

But for all that there is danger that in our new eagerness to find and bring out the child's forces we may forget the prime need of strengthening his self denial.—Dr. Frank Crane in Woman's World.

WHISTLER AT WEST POINT.

He Loved Truth and Took Punishment Rather Than Lie.
At West Point was old Joe, the negro cadet hair cutter. He was never known to smile or to deviate from "regulations." Once a month cadets were obliged to have their hair cut by him. This was a great worry to Whistler, who disliked to part with his pretty locks, so he would try by cajolery and flattery to have Joe let up a little on the length of his hair. But in this he was never successful. Joe would stop his shears in the midst of a remonstrance and say, "Mr. Whistler, do you want me to cut your hair according to regulations or not?" Of course this put an end to the argument, and Whistler would come back to our rooms, look in the glass and swear about Joe.
He loved frankness, truth and honor. Cards were forbidden in cadet barracks, but we had a pack, and one night long after "taps" (10 o'clock) we had been playing, and the cards lay carelessly aside, when we were surprised by the entrance of the inspecting officer, who spied the cards. We knew that the offense was a serious one against discipline and considered whether we could properly ask that the report should read "Cards in possession," a lesser offense, instead of "Playing cards," as we were not playing when the inspector saw us. Whistler said, "No, we had been playing," so we faced the music and as punishment lost our cadet furloughs for a summer.—H. M. Lazelle in Century.

minute and instructive account that lists of Booth's acting was written by him—a book called "The Tragedian"—and Gould's marble bust of Booth, a noble work of art (made before the comedian Flynn broke Booth's nose with a pewter pot), is the best likeness of that great actor. But Gould's assiduous personal attentions to Booth became wearisome to that eccentric man and vexed him. Peculiar discretion is sometimes requisite to those who would praise and please eminent persons. Booth, when acting in Boston, customarily lodged at an old hotel called the Albidon, situated in Tremont street, at the northwest corner of Court street.
"One day," said Edwin, "my father dashed into the bedroom where I was sitting and, almost breathless with haste, exclaimed: 'Gould! Coming up! Say I'm out,' and literally dived under the bed. I received Mr. Gould, who seemed surprised not to find my father (I think he had seen him rushing upstairs), and he talked with me for several minutes. Then there was a moment of silence, and my father, becoming impatient, thrust his head out from under the bed, inquiring as he did so:
"Is that infernal bore gone yet? Imagine the effect!"—Collier's Weekly.
A Short Christmas.
Christmas day is only three hours long in the Finnish town of Tornes, said a traveler. "I spent last Christmas there. At sunrise I got up to see my presents and to read my Christmas mail, and night had fallen before I got through breakfast."

TURKS LEAVING ASIATIC SHORE

Tottering Condition of Dardanelles Bringing on New Crisis in Balkan League.

ALLIED FLEET POUNDS FORTS LARGE BODIES OF TROOPS LAND

Roumania Mobilizing to Prevent Becoming Second Belgium, and Early Entrance of Balkans in Fray Seems Assured—Russ Fall Back in North—Russ Gaining in Galicia.

By Associated Press.

London, September 14.—Landings of additional large bodies of British and French troops on the Gallipoli peninsula are reported from Mitylene today.

It is reported also that the Turks are firing villages on the Asiatic shore of the Dardanelles, and it is suggested that they are preparing to abandon the straits.

Allies claim that Turkish shore batteries on the Asiatic side of the straits have been almost reduced to silence.

A partial mobilization of Roumanian troops has been ordered, to meet the concentration of Austrian forces in Transylvania.

It is understood in Sofia that Germany has demanded permission for the passage of Austro-German troops through Roumanian territory, and the delivery by Roumania of various supplies, estimated in value at $40,000,000.

Greece, Roumania and Serbia are reported to be considering joint action, in case of an Austro-German attack on Roumania.

Discussion of changes in the Russian cabinet has been revived, with the return of Premier Goremykin from the headquarters of Emperor Nicholas.

The broad program of the new liberal majority in the Duma, for reform legislation, is considered unlikely by the government.

Field Marshal von Hindenburg's offensive near Dvinsk, where the railroad leading from Vilna to Petrograd has been reached, again menaces the railway connections with the Russian capital.

In eastern Galicia, the Russians are reported to have penetrated the Austro-German trenches.

To the north, the Russians are withdrawing steadily from the dangerous Niemen salient.

NEW REVOLUTION IN PORTUGAL

By Associated Press.

Paris, September 14.—A new insurrectionary movement has broken out, not only in Lisbon, but in the principal provincial cities of Portugal, says a dispatch from Madrid.

AIR RAIDS FREQUENT

By Associated Press.

London, September 14.—Another German air raid was made over the east coast of England last night. The Star says there were four victims.

The Star adds that the total casualties from airship raids during the last seven days amounts to 166.

"During this period there have been five air raids on England, the Star says. "The first raid of the series took place on Tuesday night, resulting in 56 casualties.

"The second, in the eastern counties, occurred on the following night, when there were 106 victims. The third and fourth were both futile. Yesterday's attack took four victims."

LOSS NOW 321,383

By Associated Press.

London, September 14. — Official announcement was made today in the House of Commons that the total of British war casualties, up to August 21, was 321,383, officers and men killed, wounded or missing.

It may be assumed that the heaviest proportion of losses was at the Dardanelles.

The losses from June up to August 21, are shown to have been 123,914, a daily average of about 1,500.

THE WEATHER

(By Associated Press)

Washington, September 14. —Weather predictions issued by the weather bureau today for the Ohio valley region, are as follows:

Fair and warm Wednesday and Thursday, followed by showers on the latter date or Friday, and generally fair and cool weather thereafter until the close of the week.

NEXT MEETING ON SATURDAY

By Associated Press.

Washington, September 14.—Secretary Lansing announced today that the Pan-American conference on the Mexican situation, which was to have convened here tomorrow, will not be held until Saturday, and that it will be in New York City.

The change in plan, he said, was due to illness of one of the conferees.

PHILBRICK GETS A NICE JUICY PLUM

By Associated Press.

Columbus, September 14.—C. C. Philbrick, Democrat, Columbus publisher, was appointed member of the State Board of Administration today by Governor Willis, to succeed Starr Cadwallader, Democrat, of Cleveland, who tendered his resignation on demand of the governor.

Mr. Philbrick is editor and publisher of a Democratic Weekly newspaper of Columbus. He was affiliated with the so-called "True Democracy League," which opposed the re-election of Governor Cox.

Mr. Cadwallader's term of office did not expire until May, 1917. Governor Willis stated he had requested the resignation.

Considerable friction had developed between the chief executive and the Board of Administration recently, over refusal of the board to accept resignations of heads of state departments, whom the governor wished ousted.

Governor Willis will have two appointees of the four members of the board when Mr. Philbrick takes office.

U-BOAT IS SUNK

By Associated Press.

Paris, September 14.—A German submarine has been torpedoed and sunk by a French torpedo boat patrol between Mitylene and Tenedos, says a dispatch from Athens.

WOMAN KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE

By Associated Press.

Cleveland, September 14. — Mrs. Annie Jensik, aged 45, was instantly killed by an automobile, which jumped the curb of a street here today.

Mrs. Jensik was taking her ten-year-old son to school, and was leading him by the hand. When she saw the automobile plunging toward them she threw the child to safety.

NONE HURT ON LINER

By Associated Press.

New York, September 14. — No lives were lost and no one was injured during the fire on the steamer Sant' Anna, bound from New York for Italian ports, according to a wireless message received by the Fabre Line agents here today.

Some officials of the line believe the fire was caused by a fire bomb timed to explode when the vessel was in mid-ocean.

ASKED TO DISAVOW SINKING

By Associated Press.

Washington, September 14.—The American government is not yet willing to discuss with Germany the question of arbitration, in connection with the sinking of the Arabic.

It was stated today by a high official "that the question of arbitration is not in issue."

It was explained that what the American government first wants, is a disavowal of the attack on the Arabic.

Afterward, it was indicated, the American government may be willing to arbitrate the question of indemnity.

Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, has communicated the view of the American government to Berlin, and it is expected that he will receive a reply within the next week or ten days.

FIND DEAD MEXICANS

By Associated Press.

Brownsville, Texas, September 14. —The bodies of three dead Mexicans were found today at various points in this section. Two bodies were found 25 miles from the scene of yesterday's fighting.

The Mexicans had been shot. There was no indication as to whether they had been victims of private vengeance.

Another troop of cavalry was sent today into the section where the soldiers were ambushed yesterday.

A Mexican was arrested there on suspicion, making a total of six prisoners held in connection with this fight.

MAY GET BILLION ON NOTES

By Associated Press.

New York, September 14.—The report that the Anglo-French financial commission contemplated borrowing a billion dollars here without collateral of any sort, and solely on government notes of Great Britain and France, overshadowed all other topics in the financial section today.

Heretofore, the opinion has prevailed that Great Britain and France would secure the proposed mammoth loan by American securities.

Whether a strict interpretation of American neutrality would permit the issuance of a straight commercial loan on bonds of two of the allied warring nations, was a topic of considerable conjecture.

The belief prevailed that the Washington government would not interfere.

In case the commission should fail in its plan, it is said, wholesale curtailment of American exports would follow. Wheat, it was said, could be bought in Canada, Argentina, Australia, India and Russia, should the Dardanelles be forced by next March.

Cotton already held in Great Britain, could be made to last until Egypt could produce it. Meats would be bought from Argentina, and manufactured goods from the remaining neutral nations of Europe.

DUMBA ASKS TO GO BACK

By Associated Press.

Lenox, Mass., September 14.—The Austro-Hungarian ambassador, Dr. Dumba, announced today that he had requested his foreign office to recall him on leave of absence in order that he might make a personal report on the situation in the United States, which resulted in a request by the United States government for his recall.

He said he probably would not make public the statement of his position, which he had intended to give to the American press.

He would have something to say, however, through the Austrian press, when he reached Vienna.

Copenhagen, September 14.—According to press dispatches, Dr. Dumba will sail from New York for Copenhagen on September 22.

DR. DUMBA.

Austro-Hungarian Ambassador, who Leaves America, Upon Complaint of President Wilson, September 22.

AMERICAN IS RELEASED

El Paso, Texas, September 14.—Edward Ledwidge, an official of the Mexican Northwestern Railway, who has been held for $10,000 ransom by bandits in Chihuahua, was released early today, according to information reaching here. A posse is pursuing the bandits.

MANY CHANGES ARE MADE IN M. E. CHURCH APPOINTMENTS

Great Disappointment Over the Transfer of Rev. F. E. Ross to Ironton, One of the First Changes Decided Upon by the Bishop—Other Changes in Fayette—Entire List of Appointments as Announced.

It is with a sense of keen disappointment that the congregation of Grace M. E. church and citizens in general learn of the appointment of Rev. F. E. Ross to the Ironton pastorate, although the appointment comes in the shape of a promotion and substantial increase in salary.

It was confidently believed that Rev. Ross would be returned to Grace church for another year at least, and when it became known that in all probability he would be transferred to the Ironton church, a committee hurried to Columbus but Bishop Anderson was firm. It was one of the very first changes to be made and around it hinged virtually all of the other appointments. It was a Bishop's appointment, and had been made without even consulting the district superintendent, as were a number of the leading appointments.

During his pastorate here Rev. Ross has added several hundred new members to the church roll and his relations generally, have been of the most pleasant with the church, so that it is with sincere regret that the congregation learns of the change and Rev. Ross and his pleasant family are to move to other fields of work.

It is his intention to deliver his final sermon Sunday night, after delivering his first sermon in the Ironton church Sunday morning. He will not be able to appear to teach the big class of men at Grace church—an organization which has become very dear to the pastor and which was always most highly pleased with the splendid lesson discussions and advanced ideas conveyed by the pastor in his lesson lectures.

Rev. Ross and family will move to Ironton sometime the latter part of next week.

Mr. J. B. Stone, the new pastor, comes highly recommended, and is not unknown in this city. He is a man of pleasing personality and wideawake to civic advancement in connection with religious advancement.

It is expected that he will deliver his first sermon here Sunday morning.

Other changes made in this county were: Staunton, J. H. Sudlow takes the place of Rev. Shaffer; A. S. Davidson the place of Rev. Born on West Holland charges.

Ohio Second in Automobiles
The Secretary of State announces that this year the number of licensed automobiles in Ohio will exceed one hundred and sixty-eight thousand.

That means that Ohio automobile owners, in connection with automobile dealers, motorcycle owners and licensed chauffeurs will turn into the state treasury for the use of the highway department something over one million dollars.

The one million or more dollars which the owners of motor-driven vehicles pay in excess of the cost of maintaining the automobile department will be, presumptively at least, judiciously expended on the roads of the state and that should go a long way toward bringing about better road conditions.

The announcement means too, that Ohio has passed both California and Illinois in the number of automobiles and that the people of Ohio are second only to one state in the union—New York—in the possession of "machines."

The figures speak volumes for the prosperity of Ohio people. They tell a tale of life and up to dateness in the Buckeye state which is not exceeded by any state in the union. Even though the totals of the Empire State exceed our own it must be borne in mind that the population of New York is so much greater than Ohio that the difference in total figures, as to the ownership of motor-driven vehicles, is not proportionate to the difference in population.

While the figures and estimates of the secretary of state prove conclusively that the automobile has come to stay, it again reminds us that our roads have gone and that under the present plan of construction they cannot be rebuilt as rapidly as they give way. The necessity for a change in plan of construction and maintenance is evident to all who give the subject any consideration.

Local responsibility for road conditions and local control of construction and maintenance would be better by far than state control if it was not for the fact that so many counties of the state are financially unable to bear the burden.

It is probable that before long our law makers may be able to devise a method by which the state can look after the road conditions, in less prosperous counties, leaving the financially responsible counties free to build and maintain their own roads. If it was possible—and it should be—to supplement the present plan, it is certain that better results would follow.

With the tremendous number of automobiles in use and that number increasing rapidly, the road problem becomes more serious than ever before.

Science Knows Little About the Functions of the Human Brain
By H. C. MCOMAS, Assistant Professor of Psychology, Princeton University

MUCH has been already attained in study of mental diseases, though the subject is in inchoate form. With our present inadequate methods we can detect some of the future criminals in the schools. This field of research is difficult and full of pitfalls, as are the beginnings of any branch of science. IT DEMANDS SCIENTISTS OF TRAINING, WITH GREAT PATIENCE AND INGENUITY. SUCH MEN SHOULD BE ENTIRELY FREE FROM DISTRACTIONS AND SHOULD HAVE EVERY FACILITY FOR PROSECUTING THEIR WORK.
A great foundation, thoroughly equipped and generously endowed, dedicated solely to the investigation of the functions and disorders of the nervous system, would achieve a most important benefit to civilization.
Stomachs, livers, lungs and kidneys have all had their day in the medical world. Surely it is time the brain had its turn.
OUR IGNORANCE OF THE ORGAN IS STUPENDOUS. WHOLE AREAS ARE LIKE UNEXPLORED CONTINENTS. WE KNOW NOTHING OF THEM EXCEPT THAT THEY EXIST. A PITIFULLY SMALL FRACTION OF THE CORTEX AND SUBCORTICAL REGIONS IS UNDERSTOOD AT ALL.

A LITTLE BIT MORE SUMMER.
A little bit more summer—Oh, yes a little more!
That golden spell of beauty ere the memory be o'er!
A little bit more summer
Just to help us keep the song
When the wind begins to whistle
And the winter nights are long!
A little bit more summer — though the sun may sting and burn!
A little bit more summer ere the leaves to crimson turn!
A little bit more summer
In this life that knows so well
The stormbeat and the shadow
And the things that haunt to tell!
A little bit more summer—just a day or two of grace,
With that sweetness of the violet in the sunshine of her face!
A little bit more summer,
Ere she turns through yonder door,
With her dreams to be remembered
While she smiles on us no more!
A little bit more summer—we can stand another glance
From her eyes of burning beauty as we join her in the dance!
A little bit more summer
Just to kiss and light the stream
Where our hearts will hold her ever
In the sunshine of a dream!

Luke McLuke Says
The bride often turns out to be the best man at the wedding, but the groom doesn't find it out until later on.
The old fashioned bashful young man who would call on a girl for seven months and fidget around trying to work up enough courage to hold her hand now has a son who meets a girl at 8:30 p. m. and is engaged to her and has her on his lap at 9 p. m.
The world may renege on other things, but you can bet that you will get your full share of criticism.
The silks sported by an affinity may dazzle a man when he is flush and out joy riding, but his wife's old apron sure looks good when he is broke and nursing a big head.
Men like to talk about the women swapping gossip. But the truth of the matter is that every wife pities a lot of other married women because of things her husband has blabbed about the other women's husbands.
Cheer up! Maybe you are not as badly off as you imagine. Many a wealthy man would give a whole lot to be able to carry your appetite into a dining room.
He may grudge her other things, but a man is usually willing to let his wife have all the religion in the family.
Maybe if the 1915 June bride would take a good look at some of the 1900 models she wouldn't feel quite so sure that she isn't going to get fat and sloppy looking like her mother.
Before he gets her he likes to bury his face in her fragrant hair. After he gets her he cusses a blue streak every time he discovers one of her hairs in the comb.

BRYAN WOULD GO TO EUROPE TO STOP WAR
Commoner May Attempt to Bring About Peace.

Philadelphia, Sept. 14.—William J. Bryan has signified his willingness to go to Europe and to attempt to bring about peace.
Whether or not he will go will be decided at a conference between the publishers of foreign language newspapers and himself in Washington next Friday.
The announcement of Mr. Bryan's willingness was contained in a letter received by the editor of an Italian newspaper here from Dr. William Forgo of Brooklyn, who publishes the Forgo Guides and heads the movement to have Mr. Bryan try to stop the war. The announcement was accompanied by an invitation to attend the conference Colonel Bryan will defray his own expenses.
"After the talk I had with Mr. Bryan," writes Dr. Forgo, "I am under the impression that, provided it develops at this meeting with the editors that his going abroad is advisable, he himself will for the love of the cause not only sacrifice his time, but will also pay his own expenses."
This was the answer to a number of the conferees who proposed that a fund be raised from which to pay Mr. Bryan a salary and his expenses.

HELD FINE WAR RECORD
Eaton, O., Sept. 14.—Andrew L. Harris, former governor of Ohio, who died at his home here yesterday, had been in poor health for a number of months and only a few weeks ago his condition was such that his death was feared at any moment. The ex-governor served with distinction through the civil war, was breveted brigadier general at its close, and returned home to acquire popularity and assume a prominent part in the councils of the Republican party. He was born in Butler county, on a farm, Nov. 17, 1835, so had he lived two months longer would have been eighty years of age. He graduated from Miami university in 1860, and received his LL. D. degree from Oberlin.
Governor Harris was admitted to the bar in 1865, was probate judge of Preble county from 1875 to 1882; member of the state senate in 1865 to 1867 and of the house of representatives from 1865 to 1889; became lieutenant governor of Ohio 1892-96, and was again elected to that position in 1905, when John Pattison was elected governor. On Governor Pattison's death he became acting governor, serving from 1906 to 1909, and being defeated for election as governor by Judson Harmon. He was made a member of the United States industrial commission in 1898 by President McKinley, and served on that commission until 1902. Heart disease was the immediate cause of his death.

BIGGEST SILO IN THE STATE

What is said to be one of the largest silos in existence has just been completed by J. E. Andrews on the Humphrey Jones farm near Waterloo, and within a few days the work of filling the enormous barrel will be under way, and several good sized fields of corn will be cut up and placed in the new silo.

The silo in question is 166 feet in height and has a water tank at the top, the tank being 24 by 24 by 4 feet which gives the silo a total height of 116 feet.

The silo is of concrete, scientifically constructed and reinforced so that it will last a lifetime. It required 1350 sacks of cement and 190 cubic yards of gravel and sand to construct the big barrel.

SAD SERVICE AT RESIDENCE

A simple and touching service over all that was mortal of Mrs. Samuel Evans was held at the residence Monday afternoon, by Rev. William Boynton Gage, the Evans' pastor in this city, and Rev. Shields, of the Presbyterian church of Hillsboro, their former pastor.

The home was filled with friends, who sympathized with genuine sorrow with the bereaved family. The members of Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins' Sunday school class, of which Mrs. Evans had been an appreciated member, attended in a body.

A wealth of beautiful flowers surrounded the quiet sleeper. Among them was a beautiful double casket spray of pink and white roses, chosen by the little six year old daughter Marjorie, for her mother; a wreath of carnations from Mrs. Hopkins' class; a basket of lilies and carnations from the Tuesday Kensington Club; wreath of roses from Mr. J. W. Evans and family; spray of gladioli, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Perin; pink gladioli, Mrs. Clarence Nickerson, Mrs. Ernest Shumaker; casket blanket from both families; large spray of roses, the Willis Lumber Co.

Relatives here to attend the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. John Horst, aunt and uncle of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. J. Minor Williams and daughter of Mt. Sterling, brother of Mrs. Evans; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Heistand and son of Hillsboro; Mrs. J. G. Perin of Hillsboro; mother and father of Mrs. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. John Heistand of Hillsboro; Mrs. Amos Evans, mother of Mr. Evans, Hillsboro.

Tuesday morning the family accompanied by undertaker McCoy, made the sad trip by auto to Hillsboro, where services were held in the Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon, and interment made in the Hillsboro cemetery.

PLACING BRICK ON THE LEESBURG PIKE

He is still in the Fayette Hospital.

TAKING LOOK AT LIGHT LOCATIONS

Mayor Coffey, Service Director Gerstner and G. N. Clapp, have been inspecting the location of the various lights about the city, the past day or two, and within a short time the work of installing the new lights will be taken up by a competent engineer.

It will be necessary to remove a narrow strip of the paving along each side of the streets to carry the ornamental standards, as the cables must go under ground.

Owing to the presence of trees and the fact that bracket suspension of lights is not regarded as satisfactory as center suspension, a great many of the lights will be suspended in the center of the streets by means of cables, as at present.

MRS. WILLIAM FALK DIES THIS MORNING

What to Wear this Fall

AMERICA'S pre-eminent Fashion Artists present to you their most beautiful designs and most authoritative styles in the new Wooltex Suits and Coats.

As The Store That Sells Wooltex in this city, it is our pleasure to bring these new fashions direct to you. They are charming; they are beautiful; they are refined; they are becoming; they are correct.

Such a collection of authoritative styles in tailored suits and coats is made possible only by the concentrated efforts of artists who, as individuals, represent the best thought of the fashion centers of the world.

The best artistic skill of Paris, London, Vienna, New York and Cleveland is represented in these designs, all of which have received the approval of Madame Savarie, director of the Wooltex Fashion Bureau in Paris.

Here are the correct style features to look for when you choose your tailored suit or coat for fall and winter.

Natural Figure Lines

To be correctly dressed, your tailored suit must show the lines of the natural figure—not tight-fitting, but with graceful curves.

Stylish Jacket Features

Most suit jackets are hip length, though slightly longer ones are also in style. Fur and velvet on collar, cuffs and lower edge is especially modish. The collars are wide, to be worn close about the neck or flat, with wide revers to correspond.

Skirts Have Plaits

Skirts are moderately full—two to two-and-one-half yards. The fullness is laid in soft rolling or closely pressed plaits.

Coats With Graceful In-curve

Coats have a graceful in-curve at the back, with full flaring skirts. Many handsome new models are big and loose, some being loosely belted to give the modish flaring outline effect.

WOOLTEX Tailored Suits and Coats embody all these authoritative style features. And to their stylish beauty are added the well known superiorities of Wooltex materials and Wooltex tailoring. Give yourself the pleasure of seeing these new fall styles now. Try them on, if you wish. See how becoming and graceful the new modes are. Choose your suit or coat now. Have the pleasure of being stylishly and handsomely dressed throughout the full season.

Suits at $25 to $65
Coats at $16.50 to $45
Skirts at $5 to $15

COMING AGAIN.

A Well Remembered Entertainer.

Probably no local talent entertainments have met with greater success nor is more favorably remembered than the "Singin' Skule Begiment" twice, and "Tom Thumb Wedding," which came under the management of Mr. J. Bassett Willard who certainly has many friends and admirers in Washington C. H.

The announcement of the production of his new Southern skit—"Down in Alabam," will no doubt result in pleasant anticipations by both the local singers and actors, who always derive much pleasure through the rehearsals as conducted by Mr. Willard or his representatives, and the public may, as usual, look forward to a rich laughing musical and dramatic treat. The Loyal Daughters of the Christian church have arranged a booking for this successful musical comedy and will present it at the opera house, Friday evening, October 22nd.

An additional pleasing feature of the engagement, will be the presence of Mr. Willard, to personally supervise the staging. He will bring Mr. Herschel Williams, one of his most clever assistants, and both will play leading comedy parts. From 75 to 100 local people will take part. adv.

The Voracious Cormorant.

How a cormorant dives for sea trout and gets them is told by a writer: "I had the cormorant under observation only for the space of four or five minutes, and during that short period it had captured four sea trout, all of considerable size. After being under water for a few seconds the bird would reappear with a sea trout wriggling in its bill. But in spite of the victim's desperate efforts to escape it was deftly swallowed, and after a few gulps the cormorant would resume its fishing operations. One of the sea trout gave it considerable trouble, however, for the fish struggled violently for some moments, but was deftly placed so that its head pointed down its captor's throat, and thus its own struggles assisted the bird to swallow it."

Fall Opening

The cycle of season and style swings round once more, ushering in those days so characteristic of robust autumn. The soft languorous summer days soon will be gone and summer costumes with their airy lightness are strangely out of place in the setting of the strong ruddy colors with which nature will paint Old Mother Earth. Eagerly we seek costumes in harmony with the coming season and with the urging of our own sense of the fitness of things.

This was the quest upon which the buyers of this store set out. The markets of the country were scanned and their offerings carefully considered—and always we bore in mind that our purchases must bear three attributes—quality, the best—style not only correct but bearing those characteristics that make for permanency in style—and lastly that the price be such as could only be found by careful, continuous and discriminating search.

Today, as a result of this expert shopping, the store is a veritable show place of the new Fashions for Fall—a monument to the artistic conception of many designers and to the skilled handiwork of thousands of nimble fingered workers in many lands.

You will want to be posted on the styles that the fashion centers of the world have pronounced correct. You will want to see them, to admire, to criticise—perhaps to buy. We shall be very glad to show you, to explain to you and to assist you in any manner that we may to the end that your Fall wardrobe may be correct in every detail.

MORE CLASHES ON THE BORDER

Seven Americans and Fifteen Mexicans Lose Their Lives.

BATTLES RAGED AT TWO POINTS

Trouble Starts in Star County, Texas, When Mexican Soldiers Kill Three Americans Guarding a Crossing. Bandits in Hidalgo County Kill Two Americans and Engage Force of Texas Rangers.

Galveston, Tex., Sept. 14.—Serious clashes have occurred on the border between Mexican soldiers and bandits on the one side and American soldiers, citizens and rangers on the other. As a result two American soldiers, two American citizens, three Texas rangers and fifteen Mexicans are dead. Throughout Hidalgo and Star counties soldiers and citizens are resting on their arms waiting for some alarm, and rangers are scouring the country.

The trouble started when a large number of Mexican soldiers, supposedly from Matamoras, attacked three American on the other side of the river, near Los Indios. The firing of the Mexicans did not cease until the three Americans guarding the crossing fell under the attack. Private Kraft was shot through the head and Private Forney was shot through the back. Kraft died instantly and Forney lived but a few minutes. Sergeant Welsh, commanding the squad, was seriously wounded, and escaped only by dragging himself to the brush. He says that a wild cheer went up from the Mexican soldiers on the other side when it was seen that all defenders of the border at that point had fallen.

All of these troops were of the Twelfth cavalry. Some 100 shots were fired from the Mexican side in a short time. The shooting was heard farther down the river, but when reinforcements reached the scene all Mexicans had disappeared. Later General Nafferrate declared that the enemies of Carranza did the shooting, but it is believed that none but Carranza soldiers were in the vicinity.

In the fighting in Hidalgo county two American citizens were killed by bandits. This fighting took place far from the river and more than fifty bandits were engaged, according to reports. One of the Americans was George Johnson, a ranch employee, and the other was a Mexican who had been Americanized. Ten miles south of this ranch rangers located a gang of bandits. A fight at once ensued. Three rangers were killed and five bandits bit the dust. The reports were brought to the ranch by rangers who took part in the fighting.

Demands were made upon General Nafferrate for the surrender of two bandits known to be with him at Matamoras. These requests have gone unheeded, the commander declaring that he has not the proof implicating these men.

Border stations are being recruited and it is said that the troops have instructions to kill any Mexican who fires across the border. In the interior Mexicans are being hunted like Indians and citizens are arming themselves for the uprising they expect to come this week. Women and children are being moved to points far from the border and stores are being guarded in all sections.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF WAR

Germany's note bearing on the sinking of the White Star liner Arabic, was a feature of the week ending Sept. 12. The Berlin government disclaimed responsibility for the loss of the two Americans on board and declared it could not acknowledge the obligation to pay indemnity, though willing to submit the latter point to arbitration. The note says the commander of the German submarine torpedoed the Arabic when the latter changed its course. High officials expressed disappointment at the note.

A sensational incident of the week was the demand made by the American government at Vienna for the recall of the Austro-Hungarian ambassador, Dr. Constantine Theodore Dumba. In his note to the Austrian government, Secretary of State Lansing charged Dr. Dumba with conspiracy to disrupt American ammunition plants. Others are involved in the case, including Consul General Nuber at New York, Captain Von Papen, military attache of the German embassy, and the editor of a Hungarian paper in New York. Dumba's letter to Vienna, on which the charges are based, was intercepted at London, where F. J. Archibald, an American correspondent, to whom the note had been entrusted, was detained by the British government.

With the czar in supreme command, the Russian forces the past week have put forth a stronger offensive. On the northern and central fronts the German advance has been stubbornly contested, while on the southern front the Austrian army has suffered several setbacks. Along the Sereth river south of Tarnopol, in eastern Galicia, the Austrians have withdrawn to the heights east of the Stripa river. Elsewhere the Russians and Austro-Germans are contending for the mastery of railway lines, the possession of which will make the victors more secure when the time comes to go into winter quarters.

On the western front artillery engagements, with occasional infantry attacks, featured the week. The Germans claim to have made gains in the Argonne and in Artois, where French trenches were taken after desperate assaults. The Italians, like their western allies, are heavily bombarding their opponents' line with artillery, doubtless in an effort to find a weak spot to attack.

Fighting continues at the Dardanelles without any appreciable gains for either side.

Zeppelin airships twice raided England, scores being killed and injured by bombs. The raiders reached the heart of London, where considerable damage was done.

A London dispatch dated Sept. 13 reports that the Austro-German armies on the eastern front, still striving for definite results, are making progress everywhere except along the Galician front, where the Russians report further progress.

THE CIRCUS ZOO

Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Wild Animals Come From Hamburg.

All of the animal acts with the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace circus are imported to this country from the famous Hagenbeck animal farm at Hamburg, Germany. There are many new animal faces with the big show this year which comes to Washington C. H., Monday, September 20 for performances at 2 and 8 p. m., and a parade at 10 o'clock in the morning.

The baboon is probably the closest approach to the human race. Dr. Darwin believes that these little animals are really the missing links and his research work which took place in the Hagenbeck winter quarters in Germany covered a period of twenty years.

There are two troupes of baboon actors with the Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus this season, one being handled by Mons. De Marlin and the other by Mons De Foe. These little hairy fugitives have been taught to ride bicycles, unicycles, etc. They are dressed up as human beings and eat at the dining tent with their trainers, using the knife and fork better than a good many children. They even surpass human beings in some cases, for they wash their teeth after each meal.

One of the monks has his private automobile. He rides to the stage where he performs, looks at his watch and then goes through his performance, which consists of dancing with several members of the opposite sex, playing on a musical saxophone, trick bicycle work and a little acrobatic exercise. The monkey does not like the latter and he can only be made to do enough to keep in trim.

The twenty-six educated monkeys with the circus put on a regular circus of their own and there are feats performed by their kin folk which they cannot duplicate. Before the monkeys came to America from Germany they performed before Kaiser Wilhelm and his family at the Royal Palace at Berlin.

RUSSIANS ARE FORCED BACK TO LAKE DISTRICT

Hindenburg's Army Reaches the Rovno-Petrograd Railway.

MOVING ON VILNA AND DVINSK

Czar's Men With Railway Partly In Hands of the Germans, Will Be Compelled to Make Further Retirement—Great Artillery Battle Still Rages in the West — Day's Operations on Other Fronts.

London, Sept. 14.—Berlin reports a successful rush on the part of the Germans on the eastern front.

Von Hindenburg's army through a battering offensive has at last set foot on the Rovno-Petrograd railway, between Vilna and Dvinsk. The whole Austro-German forces have been striving to gain this railway since the fall of the Polish fortresses. The offensive was carried on from three directions upon Dvinsk and the railway on either side of the town, while farther south the invaders advanced toward Vilna. The Russians were forced back to the lake district, where the railway penetrates, and are now making a stand there.

Simultaneously, the Germans pushed their way eastward toward Slonim and Pinsk, both of which are on roads which join the main railway line, while the Austrians, with whom there are many German units, are fighting hard to reach Rovno, the southern terminus of the line.

With this railway partly in the hands of the Germans, it is probable that the Russians will be compelled to make a further retirement, although their offensive in Galicia, which continues, might save them by compelling the Germans to send reinforcements to this region. There is now no doubt of Russian success in this district, as, following the Austrian admission of their retirement, the Germans announce that after repulsing Russian attacks they occupied "a favorable position situated some kilometers west of our former position."

The operations in the west are marked by the continuance of the great artillery battle from Belgium to the Argonne. A duel between guns of all calibers along the entire front now has been going on for nearly three weeks, and during the week-end has been particularly violent around Arras, in the Argonne and Champagne.
At several points the German infantry, after a heavy bombardment attempted to storm the advanced trenches of the allies, but the French reports say that these attacks all failed. Fighting of a somewhat similar character is proceeding along the Austrian front.

ITALIAN KILLED

Genoa, Sept. 14.—One Italian was murdered and so far as known, one wounded in what the coroner and police contend to be a typical Black Hand affray. The battle lasted several minutes and more than twenty shots were exchanged. Angelo Lomorzelo, forty, was killed.

The more intelligent and orderly class of Italian immigrants in this country are distinguished for their appreciation of this country as a land of independence. Liberty has been the passionate dream of their race for ages, and they are more intense than most nationalities in their devotion to our free institutions. This makes the conduct of the Italian mob in attacking the authorities in Boston on the occasion of the departure of reservists to the seat of war the more surprising and lamentable. There was the same essence of anarchy in the demonstration that inspires Black Hand outrages.
The Italian masses, like those of other races, must be taught to respect the laws and customs of the asylum they have sought in order to enjoy freedom.
Liberty is not license, and the present is an opportune time to enforce that principle impartially and with vigor.
Uncle Sam is liberal all of the time, but he can be a grim old customer some of the time if pushed to it.

The first catalogue of the stars was published about 1590.

Child Discipline.

It is bitter medicine, but the one thing needed most in the human soul is discipline.

It is well to have force, genius, vigor, enthusiasm, love, power, but you may have them and be a criminal, a maniac or a cad. You become great only when to these you add self control.

The latest movement in education is toward developing the initiative of the child. This can hardly be carried too far. And the old, stupid method of thwarting, denying and browbeating little ones just for the sake of discipline cannot be too roundly condemned.
But for all that there is danger that in our new eagerness to find and bring out the child's forces we may forget the prime need of strengthening his self denial.—Dr. Frank Crane in Woman's World.

WHISTLER AT WEST POINT.

He Loved Truth and Took Punishment Rather Than Lie.

At West Point was old Joe, the negro cadet hair cutter. He was never known to smile or to deviate from "regulations." Once a month cadets were obliged to have their hair cut by him. This was a great worry to the cadets, who disliked to part with their pretty locks, so he would try by cajolery and flattery to have Joe let up a little on the length of his hair. But in this he was never successful. Joe would stop his shears in the midst of a remonstrance and say, "Mr. Whistler, do you want me to cut your hair according to regulations or not?" Of course this put an end to the argument, and Whistler would come back to our rooms, look in the glass and swear about Joe.

He loved frankness, truth and honor. Cards were forbidden in cadet barracks, but we had a pack, and one night long after "taps" (10 o'clock) we had been playing, and the cards lay carelessly aside, when we were surprised by the entrance of the inspecting officer, who spied the cards. We knew that the offense was a serious one against discipline and considered whether we could properly ask that the report should read "Cards in possession," a lesser offense, instead of "Playing cards," as we were not playing when the inspector saw us. Whistler said, "No, we had been playing," so we faced the music and as punishment lost our cadet furloughs for a summer.—H. M. Lazelle in Century.

DIDN'T QUITE DODGE.

When the Elder Booth Tried to Escape a Man Who Bored Him.
Thomas R. Gould admired the elder Booth almost to adoration. The most minute and instructive account that exists of Booth's acting was written by him—a book called "The Tragedian" and Gould's marble bust of Booth, a noble work of art (made before the comedian Flynn broke Booth's nose with a pewter pot), is the best likeness of the great actor. But Gould's assiduous personal attentions to Booth became wearisome to that eccentric man and vexed him. Peculiar discretion is sometimes requisite to those who would praise and please eminent persons. Booth, when acting in Boston, customarily lodged at an old hotel called the Albion, situated in Tremont street, at the northwest corner of Court street. "One day," said Edwin, "my father dashed into the bedroom where I was sitting and, almost breathless with haste, exclaimed: 'Gould! Coming up! Say I'm out,' and literally dived under the bed. I received Mr. Gould who seemed surprised not to find my father (I think he had seen him rushing upstairs), and he talked with me for several minutes. Then there was a moment of silence, and my father, coming impatient, thrust his head out from under the bed, inquiring as he did so: "Is that infernal bore gone yet? Imagine the effect!"—Collier's Weekly.

A Short Christmas.

"Christmas day is only three hours long in the Finnish town of Tornio," said a traveler. "I spent last Christmas there. At sunrise I got up to see my presents and to read my Christmas mail, and night had fallen before I was through breakfast."

Snare For the Unwary.

He—Why does old Miss Tittletail use an ear trumpet? Is she deaf?
She—Not a bit. She employs that instrument as a bluff and to induce people to talk freely in her presence.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.
